NEGRO CHARGED WITH CRIME.

Coroner's Jury Recommends Fiend Who Butchered Pearce Family be Given Speedy Trial.

The negro, Elmer Dempster, now in the Washington county jail, was yesterday officially charged with the murder of three members of the Pearce family in Cecil township last Sunday evening. A Washington county coroners's jury yesterday afternoon heard testimony regarding the triple homicide and returned the following verdict:

"We find that Mary E. Pearce came to her death at her home in Cecil township on Sunday, July 29, from hemorrhages caused by a bullet wound in the breast from a revolver in the hands of Elmer Dempster, and further, we recommend as speedy a trial as possible to comply with the law, be given the prisoner, so that the fiend may meet his just dues."

Similar verdicts were returned in the cases of the two children. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Sipe. Several witnesses testified that the confession secured from Dempster on the morning after the murder was a voluntary one, given in response to questions asked him. Dr. Harsha, of Canonsburg, who attended the injured boy and examined the wounds of the three murdered, stated that death in each instance must have been instantaneous and that the Commonwealth expects to prove from his testimony that Dempster's murder of the children was deliberate.

Dempster evinced no interest in the outcome of the Coroner's investigation except to ask the verdict.

Quietly Married

William Stephens, assistant cashier at the Monessen Savings & Trust company, has somewhat surprised his many friends by replacing the missing rib. Mr. Stephens left his duties at the Trust company a few days ago, presumably to take a vacation and yesterday it was learned that he had joined the great army of benedicts. The bride is Miss Cora Dils of Point Marion, and is a niece of Mr Dils, of the real estate firm of Steen & Dils. Miss Dils has been employed at Berryman's dry goods store as a saleslady. Mr. Stephens is a son of Louis Stephens of this city.

The bride and groom returned to Monessen last evening and will be at home to their friends at No. 152 Schoonmaker avenue.

ONE DEAD BEAT CAPTURED.

George Hohn was arrested yesterday at the instigation of the C. S. Pore Hardware Company on a charge of having obtained goods under false pretense. Hohn bought goods at the store to the amount of $30.00 and obtained credit by promising to give an order on the Pittsburg Steel Company where he was employed. After he took the goods he refused to give the order neither would he pay the bill. Last evening he was arranged before Squire Watkins on the above charge and was bound over to court in the sum of $300. He could not give bail and is now resting quietly in the lockup. Hohn has the reputation of defrauding creditors, but when he gets through with this case he maybe taught a lesson.

The picnic to be given under the auspices of the Monessen Merchants Exchange in Lynns grove next Wednesday promises to be a grand success judging from the interest which is being taken by the people in general. Another meeting was held in the Exchange rooms last night and reports were heard from various committees and so far there is not one hitch which will tend to restrict the pleasures of the day.

If the weather man is courteous this will be the banner picnic ever held by any organization of the city. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of the town and their friends to be present.

The Merchants wish it strickly understood that no intoxicating drinks of any kind will be allowed on the grounds Officer Watts will be on the grounds to see that the best of order prevails.

Chairman Schuck of the transportation committee will interview the street car company today to try and get a five cent fare for everyone that goes to the picnic.

This action was made necessary for the reason that three special cars will not be sufficient to accommodate all and some will have to pay ten cents. It is believed the company will grant the town the concession. The stores will all be closed that day and the town will be dead so far as business is concerned.

Entertained at Belle Vernon.

Mrs. J. F. Butler and a number of her pupils composed a party that went to Belle Vernon last evening, and were entertained at the home of Miss Ruby Corwin. The evening was spent with vocal and instrumental music, and a lunch was served. The party returned home on the 11:30 car.

Agency for Dye Works.

Elsewhere in this issue will be noticed the advertisement of the Footer dye works represented in this city by E A Leese who is also in charge of the Brighton Laundry. Since accepting the agency for the dye works Mr. Leese has built up a good business and his trade is growing very rapidly. He is a thoughly reliable gentleman and what he says can be depended upon. STILL FIGHTING THE RAILROAD.

The Suterville's fight with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad is not over. The speed of trains through that borough has resulted in the arrest of Engineer James W. Collins a second time. He will have a hearing next Monday morning before Justice George Strasser of Suterville on a charge of exceeding the speed limit.

Burgess W. S. Oberdick and Constable Oberdick are under bail for appearance at court, owing to the alleged irregularities in previous arrests of a similar character.

ARE WAGING BITTER FIGHT.

Policy Holders in New York Insurance Companies Now After Control.

The policy holders of the New York Life and Mutual Life insurance companies have struck a palpable blow at life insurance grafting when at a meeting July 9 held in New York City, the first steps were taken to relieve policy holders from the clutches of Morgan and Rockfeller interests or in other words to stop billion-air grafting and speculating at the expense of policy holders.

If every person in the country who has a policy in either of these two companies will listen to this appeal and lend every assistance to the cause; success will be the reward. Many people in Monessen are interested and if when the facts came before them the people's support is given it will greatly help to futher the cause.

The newspapers and magazines over the country are supporting the policy holders in their fight. The Philadelphia Record in speaking of the fight says:

"If the holders of life-insurance policies will make a moderate effort in their own behalf they may secure control of the great companies and compel them to be managed in their interest rather than in that of what Wall Street calls "high finance." The members of the International Policyholders Committee command the entire confidence of the country."

THE CHILEAN "YAPPA."

It Is Similar to the "Lagniappe" of New Orleans.

Residents of New Orleans and northern readers of Cable's stories of the city are familiar with the interesting and gracious custom of small tradesmen of giving lagniappe The word, commonly pronounced "lanyap," refers to the small present which the dealers like to their customers as a sort of inducement to call again The custom is so firmly established that the people are in the habit of waiting for their little present after they have made their purchases, and children ask for it Mrs Hort in her book "The Garden of the Pacific" describes a similar custom in Valparaiso The Chileans, however, call the gift a "yappa," which one readily sees is kindred to the word used in New Orleans

"I used to frequent the fruit market, which was well stocked The fresh figs were the largest and sweetest that I had ever seen or tasted, and I made a point of daily bringing some home for breakfast

The first time I selected the number I wanted the girl placed them between leaves in my basket and then laid another half dozen on the top I supposed that she wished me to buy an extra quantity and shook my head in the negative She smilingly explained that it was for a yappa As I had nothing more to pay, I was agreeably impressed by the custom

"The Chileans exact the yappa as their due We were in a confectionery shop one day when a small child came in and held up a centavo (halfpenny) for some sweets The man handed them to her She held up her other hand and lisped out, 'Mi yappa,' and got it"—New York Globe

THE SAIS OF EGYPT.

A Warning Runner Who Bellows Like a Bull as He Goes.

The sais is a runner who keeps in front of a carriage and warns common people out of the way and who beats them with a stick if they do not hurry up about it

It is obvious that to do this he must run quickly Most men when they run bend their bodies forward and keep their mouths closed in order to save their wind The sais runs with his shoulders thrown back and trumpeting like an enraged elephant He holds his long wand at his side like a musket and not trailing in his hand like a walking stick, and he wears a soft shirt of white stuff and a sleeveless coat burned in gold lace

He is a perfect ideal of color and movement and as he runs he bellows like a bull or roars as you have heard a lion roar at feeding times in a menagerie

There are sometimes two of them running abreast, dressed exactly alike and with the upper part of their bodies as rigid as the wand pressed against their sides and with the ends of their scarf and the long tassel streaming out behind

As they yell and bellow donkeys and carriages and people scramble out of their way until the carriage they precede has rolled rapidly by Only princesses of the royal harem and consuls general and the heads of the army of occupation and the Egyptian army are permitted two sais; other people may have one

When Thackeray Struck.

A letter written by Thackeray to the proprietor of Fraser's Magazine is quoted under the head of "When Thackeray Went on Strike" As a matter of fact, Thackeray, so far from acting on the principle of unionism, acted on precisely the opposite principle and asserted his right to individual preference. "Well," he says, "I dare say you will be very indignant and swear I am the most mercenary of individuals Not so. But I am a better workman than most of your crew and desire a better price" He ends amiably, "You must not, I repeat, be angry or, because we differ as tradesmen, break off our connection as friends"—London News

A Barbarous Policy.

After the Dutch had taken the Moluccas from the Portuguese they introduced the cultivation of the clove into their own possessions, cut down all the clove trees of the Moluccas and pronounced death on any one who would plant a single clove bush or gather or sell a pound of the product Expeditions were sent from their other eastern possessions every year to cut down any bushes that might have accidentally started in the Moluccas islands This barbarous policy made the islands a desert, for, deprived of their forests, the volcanic soil was washed away, and the population starved or was deported

His Fair Share.

The Chinese always have understood the great art of making the punishment fit the crime Man or joss, if he offends, gets exactly his deserts Vice roy Shum, who was anxious to see the end of the heavy rainfalls, was very angry with the guardian joss of Canton, who remained deaf to all prayers to bring about a little sunshine A Wetyuen was dispatched to the temple with orders to uncover the roof over the joss' head and let him have his fair share of the rain.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

A WONDERFUL MEMORY.

The Story Maretus Told of a Young Corsican Marvel.

Maretus tells us that during his travels over Europe he met the "marvel of marvels" at Padua. The marvel in question was a young Corsican who was in the city for the purpose of pursuing his studies at the university. Maretus, having heard that the young man was gifted with an extraordinary memory, desired to put the student to the test.

The person who had informed the traveler concerning the wonderful retentiveness of the young Corsican's memory declared that he was so gifted in that faculty that he could repeat as many as 36,000 words if read over to him but once. Maretus and three distinguished Venetians agreed to test the accuracy of the statement. A committee visited the student of extraordinary memory and found him willing to submit to the ordeal. Accordingly there was read over to him an almost interminable list of words strung together without any consecutive order and without any meaning whatever.

The young man stood all the time with his attention deeply fixed and his eyes half closed. When the long string of words had been read off he looked up cheerfully and repeated the whole of the uninteresting catalogue of words without a single fault. Then to show how carefully his wonderful memory had retained every word he went through the list backward. When that task was finished he took each alternate word—first, third, fifth, etc.—and repeated them until the company was thoroughly convinced that they were in the presence of the most wonderful prodigy of memory that the world had ever produced.

KNOW THY COUNTRY.

A Precept That Every Citizen Should Take to Heart.

Juvenal said, "This precept descends from heaven—know thyself." To this we add—know thy country. Know its area, its population, its products, native and exclusive, agricultural and mineral. Know its present output and its possibilities. Know its states, its territories and large cities and what they are severally noted for. Know its geography and typography, its constitution, principles and history, its literature, its art and its sciences, its philosophy, discoveries and inventions. Know its relation to other nations, both political and financial. Know its possessions—Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines—their history severally, the customs and languages of their people and the sources of their wealth. Many men know these things now and love their country and are serviceable to their fellow citizens in proportion to their knowledge. It costs labor and the sacrifice of so called pleasure to acquire this knowledge, but to the genuinely manly man, whose life's purpose is to make the utmost of his abilities and opportunities and who in one way and another is developing his country's hidden treasures and imparting his own practical enthusiasm to other lives, there are a relish and a delight in the search for knowledge that compensate a thousandfold.

The Woman In Business.

A New York real estate agent has been telling of some of his business experiences with women. Mrs. A., he says, wanted to find a house that would fit her carpets and wasted several weeks' on the job. Mrs. B. had six children of her own, but wanted a guarantee that no other children would be allowed in the building. Mrs. C. signed a lease with a clause that no dogs should be brought in and then deliberately brought several into her family and told the agent such restrictions in a lease were of no account. "Do you wonder," he asks, "that men do not like to deal with women?" Of course, however, Massachusetts women would never do anything like that.—Boston Globe.

An Ideal Bath.

An ideal combination is to soap the body all over, using tepid water before plunging into a cold bath. But there are many good folks who cannot face a cold bath daily and who after taking one are apt to be cold and shivering all the day through. For these the best plan is, after a warm bath, to sponge the throat and chest with cold water, which is most stimulating and especially so where the bather suffers from chronic colds. To insist on a cold bath is just as unwise as to have a bath that is too warm and to remain in it too long. That is the more general mistake.

Her Word of Honor.

"Don't you love me?"

"Yes, dear, but I'm already engaged."

"Break your engagement."

"Oh, George, that wouldn't be honorable! An engagement is a sacred thing, not lightly to be entered into or broken off. Besides"—

"Well?"

"Well, I'm engaged to two men, and that makes it even worse."—Cleveland Leader.

Stabbed.

"Whew! That's the first time I ever made a speech. I felt like I had forgotten all I had ever learned."

"You appeared to be talking just as you felt."—Houston Post.

A Snob.

Thackeray designated a snob as a being on a ladder who is quite as ready to kiss the feet of him who is above him as to kick the head of him who is below.

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

G. B. Burhans Testifies after four Years.

G. B. Burham of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I'm glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by Kirks Drug Store.

If you will make inquiry it will be a a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder trouble in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure It never disappoints.

CAL.-ROSCOE AGAIN BEATEN

Locals Continue Winning Streak by Again Hanging it on the Combines.

The Cal-Roscoe aggregation was the attraction at Athletic park yesterday afternoon, and Vaughn's boys put the spurs into them good and deep. The score was 8 to 4. Until the seventh inning the visitors were perfectly powerless against the twirling of "Farmer" Brown while the local swatters found Humphries delivery rather to their liking He was banged for twelve safe hits. Monessen wasted little time in getting started Humphries measure was soon taken and by the end of the sixth they had scored more than enough runs to win. The feature of the game was the batting of the locals. The score:

Monessen—	R	H.	P.	A	E.

Base Ball Scraps.

Still winning.

Hurrah for "farmer" Brown.

Now boys get this one today.

Vaughn and Berghammer failed to connect.

McKenna got three of the locals dozen safe hangs.

The Combines only got four hits off the "farmer."

Did we hear Monongahela bragging of a two lead on third place or was it a dream?

8 goose eggs sounds better than fifty when used in reference to the distance between us and third place.

Belle Vernon shut out Monongahela yesterday 8 to 0. Red Smith held the Monongahela boys down to one hit.

Belle Vernon hung it on Monongahela yesterday. Much obliged. Now Charleroi, soak it to 'em today if you please.

It's a pity Belle Vernon would'nt win a few games so that Truxal of the Enterprize would be given an opportunity to work off some of that surplus energy.

Harry Wilson, former manager of the Fayette City club has been secured to act in a similar capacity for the Monongahela team. Wilson takes the place of Captain, Manager Griffiths, who will be out of the game the rest of the season. Kelly has also been substituted for Howe in right field. They are also after Maxwell, lately of the P. O. M. league.
